

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:
Nick Clark
Rose Hills Memorial Park & Mortuary
(562) 692-1212 x4544
nick.clark@rosehills.com

Free Seminar Addresses Veterans Benefits

WHITTIER, Calif., February 6, 2008 – Rose Hills Memorial Park & Mortuary will host a free seminar on Veterans Benefits on Feb. 21. at 6:30 p.m. in its Reception Center.

The seminar, to be presented by Tate, Miller, Bernard & Associates, will focus on clarifying common misconceptions, ensuring receipt of all due benefits, qualifying for benefits despite employment status and identifying all available resources.

The seminar is a part of Rose Hills' Bridge program, which aims to educate the community on challenging issues such as estate planning, maintaining a healthy lifestyle, assisted living options, identity theft and addressing grief.

All Bridge seminars are free to the public, however seating is limited. More information about the scheduled topics and how to attend can be found on the Rose Hills website at www.rosehills.com.

About Rose Hills

Founded in 1914, Rose Hills has since grown to be the largest single-location memorial park in the U.S. It offers a full range of beautiful facilities, as well as comprehensive services. Its property and memorial options ensure that each life can be honored in a personal, befitting way.