

Please join Rose Hills for a free community seminar about Estate Planning

Tuesday, February 16 at 7:30p

Brea Community Center, Room B
(695 E. Madison Way, Brea, Calif.)

Come learn the answers to these common questions:

- Who will handle things if you become incapacitated?
- Who will make your healthcare decisions if you're unable to?
- Who will take care of your children if something happens to you?
- What is a Living Trust and do you need one?
- What happens to your assets if you die without a Will or Trust?
- Why is it best to avoid probate?

Diana K. Zilko, Attorney at Law, will be presenting. She has been practicing in Brea for 13 years and handles estate planning, personal injury cases, bankruptcy and family law matters.
